Johnson Park Costs Soar Past $4 Million: Completion Is Delayed

Plans for the 12-room addition to Johnson Park School have been sent back to the drawing board to see if ways can be found to cut construction costs. These costs, originally estimated at $2.75 million, have now soared to nore than $4 million.

In addition, construction at Johnson Park will almost certainly not be completed in time for the previously targeted September, 1991, opening. At the earliest, the school will be ready to open in September. 1992. The fifth grade cannot be returned to the already crowded elementary schools until the fourth elementary school - Johnson Park - is reopened. This means that fifth graders will have to remain at John Witherspoon Middle School a year longer than had been anticipated.

The application of Federal regulations relating to classroom size is the major reason for the increase in construction costs. The Board's inability to meet State deadlines for filing preliminary plans, as well as the expectation of a State review process which can run from nine to 11

Daylight Saving to End

The lovely, warm weather the last few days belies the fact that winter is not far off. One sure sign is the end of Daylight Saving Time this weekend, bringing darkness an hour sooner in the late afternoon.

A small consolation is the extra hour of sleep Sunday morning for those who remember to turn their clocks back one hour before going to sleep Saturday night. For the more energetic that extra hour Sunday can be used to plant bulbs before the ground freezes, give the lawn a final cut or rake those seemingly endless leaves.

Celebration Planned for New Route 1 Overpass But Next One Is Already Facing Stiff Opposition

A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held Friday noon to open the new overpass at Route 1 and College Road.

The nine-lane bridge links the Princeton Forrestal Center and Princeton Forrestal Village. Hailed as the first highway project in New Jersey built solely with private funds, the $20 million project was funded by Princeton University and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the two abutting property owners.

The overpass was designed by Edwards and Kelcey of Livingston and built by George Harms Construction Company of Howell. The plans were approved by the New Jersey Department of Transportation but that was the extent of DOT Involvement. Official groundbreaking took place last March, and observers have remarked on the speed with which the bridge has gone up. The official opening was originally forecast for this December.

The overpass was designed as a single span without a pier in between the north and south bound lands of Route 1. This was done not only for aesthetics but also to speed construction and to eliminate disruptive activity within Route One itself.

A luncheon in celebration of the opening is planned after the ribbon cutting ceremony. However, not all Princeton residents are pleased by the size and scale of the College Road overpass — at the Planning Board meeting last week Marvin Reed described it as "humongous." Planning Board members and some residents, namely those on Lake Drive and the Riverside section, are looking ahead in alarm to the next overpass proposed in this section of Route 1 - an overpass at Scudders Mill Road, with an extension to Mapleton Drive along the D&R Canal (see mailbox).

Believing that this overpass is in final engineering with construction proposed for 1991, the Planning Board has decided to ask

40 Single-Family Homes Now Proposed by DKM In Latest Concept Plan

Forty single family homes are now proposed on the DeMenil tract off Pretty Brook Road — a reduction in density from earlier proposals.

DKM Residential Properties, developer of the 109-acre tract, has sent the Planning Board a new concept plan that eliminates six of the 46 lots proposed earlier in the year. The board reviewed that plan at two meetings last spring and concluded that it could not recommend to the Zoning Board that it grant the density variance needed for this number of lots. At the time, it was determined by the professional planner, the zoning officer and Planning Board consultants that 40 units would not require a density variance from the Zoning Board and would give jurisdiction to the Planning Board.

DKM seemed anxious to have the application go before the Planning Board, or at least to have its plan receive the endorsement of the board if it were to go to the Zoning Board. DKM representatives

Housing

Priority for the low- and moderate-income units will be given first to Borough residents who live in deficient housing and then to households forced to vacate their premises due to public actions, such as condemnation; households suffering financial hardships because of the cost of their present accommodations; and households living in overcrowded conditions.

Priority for the middleincome units will go to households which are forced to vacate their premises due to public actions in the Borough; persons whose services are necessary in an emergency situation and whose proximity is necessary for the health, safety, and well-being of the community; and households in the Borough no longer able to stay in their homes for financial reasons.

One-hundred-percent financing for the ten low and moderate income units is being made available to qualified applicants by the New Jersey Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency (HMFA), With this, home buyers in these categories may borrow 100 percent of the sale price plus reasonable closing costs.

A lease-purchase arrangement is available to all purchasers. After a down payment of $500 in the low and moderate category, and $1,000 in the middle-income category, the home buyer each month pays a portion of the down payment, condominium 'ees, and some extra toward payment of in-terest on debt. This lease arrangement, which lasts two years, allows the down payment to be raised.

gages from area banks, will also be available to qualified applicants. "Because the project is being done in phases, on scattered sites, they are almost able to hand tailor mortgages in local banks," said Mayor Barbara Sigmund.

'This is a unique program in terms of helping individuals into home ownership," said the Mayor, "We so often find that the down payment becomes the entry fee many people can't afford to save for. By offering the lease-purchase program, among other alternatives, to people of low and moderate incomes, we hope to be able to demonstrate that municipalities can help people take the step into home ownership."

The 16 units now being offered feature central air conditioning, wall-to-wall carpeting, and a dishwasher. There is at least one parking space per unit, and both sites are within a quarter mile of the Central Business District.

Architect for the Hamilton Avenue units is E. Harvey Myers of Princeton. Clark and Caton, Trenton, designed the units on John and Clay Streets. The builder for this phase was GMG Development Corporation of Lawrenceville.

Preliminary applications are available at Borough Hall and the Public Library. All preliminary applications must be mailed to Princeton Borough Community Development Office, 1 Monument Drive, Princeton, NJ 08542, and postmarked no later than 5 p.m., November 30, 1989, Handdelivered applications will not be accepted.

Persons seeking further information are asked to call Light Management Group, 247 Nassau Street, 497-1479.

The second and final phase of the Borough's affordable housing program will be located on the Maclean Street parking lot and on Shirley Court. It will consist of 44 units, divided again among low-, moderate-, and middle-income categories. No date for beginning this phase has been announced.

On Witherspoon Street The sound of a beautiful and trained tenor voice surprised many lunch-hour passersby on Witherspoon Street on several days recently. The singer was Kerry Stubbs, a senior at Westminster Choir College, who uses the money given to him by appreciative listeners to help pay his tuition. "This is my job," he says. "I help myself get through school.

A native of Jamaica, who has lived in New York City for the past 14 years, Mr. Stubbs used to be a regular performer at Grand Central Station. But officials there decided to change the system, and announced that performers had to audition

"I couldn't attend the audition because of final exams, so I had to look at other places, said Mr. Stubbs.

WHO KNOWS what's going on in Princeton? People who read TOWN TOPICS, of course

He started singing in front of Abel Bagel, where owner Alfred Kahn tells him he has a place whenever he wants to be there. Mr. Stubbs used to work at Abel, as part of the 5 a.m.

He has had some very positive responses to his singing, as well as some com-plaints. "Some people have peculiar looks, others are amazed and very pleased." He has been told, "You're beautiful," and "Come back again."

Mr. Stubbs would like to stay in Princeton after he completes Westminster. "It gives me peace of mind," he says. "In the city you're always thinking about something else rather than your inner self. There are sirens from cop cars, fire engines. Here I can compose."

His long-range hopes include singing at the Metropolitan Opera. But right now he is preparing for his senior recital November 19 Westminster. He also plans to be back on Witherspoon Street, but not when it's cold. "I'll sing only on nice days, in Indian summer.

Township Considers Garbage Questions; Resident Asks Municipality-Wide Collection

Will the Township go to municipality-wide garbage col-

One resident whose private hauler has doubled and trebled her montly rate fervently hopes so. She is Mrs. Stanley PoKempner of Shady Brook Lane, who came to Township Committee last Monday to ask for answers to questions about possible Township-wide garbage collection. Mrs. PoKempner told Committee she puts out one bag of garbage a week at the curb and thus qualifies for the hauler's lowest rate.

However, that rate has risen to $96 a quarter or, as she puts it, $8 a day or a bag. ''I am well aware of the landfill situation around the country," Mrs. PoKempner stated, but she wanted to know who does the negotiating for what the Township pays for municipal collection, is it open to public scrutiny, and what is the basis of the charge for garbage removal on the tax bill. "Is Township Committee prepared for Township-wide collection?" Mrs. PoKempner asked.

Earlier in the evening, Committee had approved the addition of five lots on Shady Brook to Collection District 6, which is comprised of homes on Dodds Lane. The Township ordinance states that contiguous homeowners may petition to be added to an existing garbage collection district. The five lots were deemed "contiguous" even though across the street.

However, there are two homes are between Mrs. PoKempner's home and the homes which have been added to Collection District 6. Therefore she does not qualify as "contiguous." She says she will not be able to persuade the two intervening homeowners to join District 6, and doesn't feel she should be required to. She said she was certain that Township residents faced with increased garbage rates such as hers would want municipal collection "if you can negotiate something reasonable.

Contract Ending. The Township's two-year contract with National Waste of Ewing ends at the end of this year, and Township engineer Robert V. Kiser will negotiate a new contract. The issue of municipal collection was raised in 1984. Mr. Kiser made a comprehensive study of residents' preferences - some for back door pick-up and some for curbside - and of all the factors in-

A decision was made to file an application to join the Mercer County Joint Insurance Fund for municipal liability insurance coverage. The one thing that has been holding the Township back from joining this municipal insurance pool instead of relying on a private carrier is the matter of coverage of public officials. It was agreed to go forward with the application while obtaining more information on how much this coverage should be

Overcrowding Is Topic At Two Borough Boards

Overcrowding in Borough rental units has emerged as an area of concern at both the Rent Registration Board and the Health Commission.

Possible overcrowding was brought to the attention of Linda Feldstein, coordinator of the Rent Registration Board, by Peter Johnson, the Board's chairman. She, in turn, talked with the Regional Health Department, which was able to send inspectors to those units which had not been inspected in the past two years.

As a result, a notice of violation for overcrowding was issued to two Borough landlords.

The State health code permits only a certain number of people to live per square foot in one unit, explained Ms. Feldstein. Overcrowding, although it can be difficult to prove, may be determined by the number of beds in a room and the amount of garbage set out.

The problem appears to center on Princeton's growing Spanish-speaking population, with very minimal resources, ing to Los Angeles or San An- ing with churches, schools and mission last week passed a Legal Question. Ellen Stark raised the legal question of whether conditional use authorization is granted to the owner or to the property Mr. Muller said approval would "run with the property." Margen Penick and Richard Henkel said they had not realized this when similar requests were granted in the past. Both said they were reluctant to grant another approval on that basis.

Marvin Reed commented that "All kinds of people do this [conduct businesses from their home] all the time." He suggested plocing limits on the number of hours. Mrs. Stark suggested making the approval for the user, not the property. Mr. Muller replied that in other instances in other places that restriction had been struck down by the courts.

Mr. Muller pointed out that planning boards deal with facilities and the use of a particular facility. In order to restrict the use to Mrs. Greenberg, the board would need an explicit provision in the ordinance, but such an ordinance could probably be challenged successfully in court, he said.

ly in court, he said.

"We do have garage sales and yard sales," Joseph O'Neill remarked. "What's the difference?" Mr. Muller responded that it was the ongoing nature of a business that constitutes a home occupation for which conditional use authorization is required. He said that in vesting the authorization with the property not the person, the State land use law assumes that if a Planning Board deems the occupation appropriate for one occupant in a particular location it should be appropriate for the next.

No Objections. Mrs. Greenberg said she had "no interest in having this pass on to someone who would buy my house." Neither did she object to the restrictions which the Planning Board imposed. There were no neighbors present to either object to or support the proposal, and it was voted unanimously by the board.

In other business, the board approved the change in the location signs for the medical offices being created by Princeton Medical Group out of the old Opinion Research building on Harrison Street, Neighbors across the street had objected to the height and visibility of the sign as it was originally placed. Additional landscaping issues were referred to the Planning Board's landscape subcommittee.

The board also approved an operating budget for 1990. Included were outlays for studies by consultants on zoning matters which the board is labelling "research and development." One calls for $23,000 to be paid to Garmen & Associates for a traffic study in conjunction with the Scudders Mill Road overpass and potential development along Route 1 between Ridge Road and Mapleton Road.

Another calls for WRT of Philadelphia to study existing floor area ratio standards in

Drug Charges Mount Up For Cranbury Resident

A Cranbury resident ended up being charged with four criminal offenses last week, after he tried to have a forged prescription filled at Forer Pharmacy on Witherspoon Street.

Kenneth G. Podejko, 27, of 160 Evans Drive, has been charged with illegal possession of a prescription drug, obtaining drugs by fraud, forging a prescription and possession of a prescription drug not in its original container.

In Borough court Monday, the papers charging Podejko with forgery and possession of a presciption drug were sent to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office. He was arraigned before Judge Russell W. Annich Jr. on the other two. Podejko has also been charged with driving while his license was suspended.

As reported by Capt. Thomas Michaud, Podejko allegedly stole a prescription pad from a doctor's office in Somerville on October 13 and wrote himself a prescription for Roxanal, described by police as a narcotic drug, a form of morphine.

Four days later, last Tuesday, Podejko entered Forer's, but the druggist, Capt. Michaud said, noticed that the prescription had not been filled out correctly.

When told the prescription was not filled out properly and that he would have to contact his doctor, Podekjo became nervous and tried to leave the drug store. He was detained by employees, until police, who were called at 12:45, arrived.

A subsequent investigation revealed that Podejko had several drugs not in original containers in his car. He was charged specifically, Capt. Michaud reported, with possession of Xanax, described as a depressant, a stronger form of Valium.

Disorderty Conduct. A 36year-old Leigh Avenue resident, George Kornegay, was charged with disorderly conduct, following his arrest early Thursday morning on Clay Street. He faces a hearing Monday in Borough court.

According to Capt. Michaud, it was Kornegay himself who called police at 2:15 a.m., saying he wanted the police. When Ptl. David Dudeck and Ptl. Edward Sullivan arrived they saw Kornegay walking on Clay Street, holding a large glass bottle in his right hand in a "highly agitated state." Kornegay allegedly began yelling at the officers, threatening to hurt someone.

When the two officers stopped Kornegay, he continued to act in a loud and threatening manner, telling Ptl. Dudeck that he wanted to be locked up. He threw the bottle in some nearby bushes, Capt. Michaud continued, and continued to yell at the patrolmen.

Kornegay then retrieved the bottle and started to approach Ptl. Dudeck in a threatening manner, telling him that he was going to give him something that police would have to lock him up for.

This time the officers complied. They arrested Kornegy and took him to headquarters where he was charged and later released after he had calmed down.

Focus Is on Children At Christmas Boutique

This year's Christmas Boutique sor the benefit of Princeton Medical Center places particular emphasis on children. Author William McCleery has volunteered to entertain children of shopping parents by reading Wolf Story, a short story he wrote in 1947 for his own son Michael, then age 5.

Mr. McCleery will read his book aloud on Tuesday, November 7, at 4 p.m. at the Lavino Field House, Lawrenceville School, (entrance off Lewisville Road) during the 26th Annual Christmas Boutique.

The story will be particularly enjoyed by children five and older. A donation of $3 per family is requested to benefit the hospital. Younger children will be cared for in the day care area from 4 to 6 p.m. at the cost of $1 per hour.

Parents are encouraged to browse through the 22 shops and sample the various goods available at the gourmet tables. A light supper will be available for children after the reading.

Wolf Story is based on the Farley, 924-5881. real night-time adventure story Michael shared as the boy was Wednesday, November 8, from

A Coach and Artisan

To the Editor of Town Topics: I've just learned of the death of Fred Kuhn, the patriarch of the family owned business, Kopp's Bicycle Store. He was the father of six children of his own and of many young eyelists that he adopted as coach and counselor. I count myself as one of his spiritual sons - not just because he had the same first name as my father. I learned something about work from Fred, though I never worked for him.

Fred first fixed a bike for me when I was a 7th grader at the old Witherspoon School and he last fixed one when I was three ary. He was faithful to his work because he loved bicycles, and the sports connected with cycling. Many of us learned from him the old-fashioned values of the devotion of an artisan to his chosen trade.

I hope that Fred will be remembered in the town where he ran the historic Kopp's store since 1952. In 1991 Kopp's will celebrate its 100th anniversary in Princeton. I'm sure that Fred will be remembered then.

To his wife, Jean, and to his children, Karl, Brad, Meg, Lawrence, Charlie and Marie, and to his many grandchildren, we owe our sympathy in their loss and our solidarity in the loss to the world of bicycling.

Dems on Borough Council In Control 17 Years

To the Editor of Town Topics: In your recent newspaper article about the Democratic candidates for election to Princeton Borough Council, the interviewer reported:

Responding to Republican property taxes collected for municipal purposes in just ten years, (one of the Democratic candidates) said that the ten years included five years of Republican administration."

The candidate's comment about "Republican administration" certainly cannot mean Republican control. New Jersey statutes covering the Bornugh's form of government establish a governing body of seven members: six Council members and the Mayor. Obviously, the political party which has four or more of its members on the governing body is the party in control. During each of the ten years referred to above, the Democrats had at least four members on Borough Council, and therefore were the party in control.

Not only were the Democrats in control of Borough Council for the above ten years, but, according to Rorough records, they have been in control ever since January 1, 1972. This is a continuous span of control for

Millstone Valley's Beauty Ruined by Development

To the Editor of Town Topics: To attend our Fanklin Township's Planning Board mectings has lately become a great frustration. To study a map of a developer's intentions or watch the big and generally elaborate displays shown by his entourage of "experts," creates a deep feeling of loss. ## Two Republicans Want Party to Have Voice in Borough Council Republican standard bearers David Jackson and Ray Wadsworth are challenging two incumbent Democratic members of Borough Council in the November 7 election. Campaigning to be part of a governing body now composed entirely of Democrats, the two are trying to unseat Council members Jane Terpstra and Roger Martindell.

""There are a lot of people who go back to the Princeton when those labels didn't mean as much," said Mr. Jackson, 23, who received a degree in economics in 1988 from Princeton University and is now an assistant buyer at Saks Fifth Avenue in New York. "I don't think that Princeton is that ideologically Democratic. It used to elect Republicans, and town.

Son of a career Army officer, Mr. Jackson lived in 14 places in 17 years. "There's a banner over our fireplace that says, 'Home is where the Army sends us.

This is the reason he says he felt so strongly about Princeton when he came here. "I wanted to settle in a place with a strong sense of community. Princeton is unique. People want to get involved in many different ways. It's a great community because it's really a microcosm of the United States. There are lots of different people from lots of different backgrounds - ethnically, economically, small and large businesses, academic in-stitutions, music institutions."

There are many tough choices ahead that will need to be made, said Mr. Jackson. "The priority is infrastructure. If the infrastructure isn't fixed, we can't start things like the lihrary or any future affordable

Commenting on the Bor-ough's affordable housing program, he noted that the cost has gone up $1.9 million. "If they had started earlier, or had made the comment when someunits at Griggs Farm - which private development - that because the Borough is retailing a small number of units at any time, they won't have the same problem.

Wadsworth worked Elizabethtown Water Company for 26 years, 19 of these as a foreman.

"This is my first time in pol-itics," he said. "I was never one to condemn anyone or say anything against anyone till this year." He said things changed for him after he returned from accompanying the Princeton High School Choir to Colmar, France, in April. "I saw how the town was all torn up, and I felt something should be dooe."

He said he wants to put his 26 years of experience in the construction field to work on Borough Council. In this regard, he became involved in decisions regarding work on Washington Road and Witherspoon Street, recommending that there be some night work in the former project and that work on the latter be divided between day and night.

Mr. Wadsworth is one of the merchants who have objected to a schedule which showed that several roads in the Cental Business District were scheduled to be repaired in

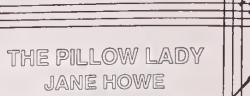

"They were going to redo Witherspoon Street, Palmer Square, Chambers Street, and Vandeventer," he said. "This would tie it up again. I'm not only screaming about the merchants. The residents doo't know where to go. We have to take one at a time.

They face a challenge from two Republican candidates with long records of public scrvice, Michael Tomalin, who served nine years on the Board of Education, and Richard Woodbridge, elected to three successive terms on Borough Council. For both men, these terms of elected office included leadership positions which have given them an understanding of the workings of the community to a degree that is rare in a challenger candidate.

Mr. Tomalin is making his second bid for Township Committee, having been defeated by Leonard Godfrey last year. Mr. Woodbridge received 266 votes as a write-in candidate in last spring's primary election.

Longtime Residents. Mrs. Marchand and Mrs. Mitchell have both lived in the Township for many years and have children who attended Princeton regional schools. Mrs. Mitchell is a real estate sales associate with Schlott Realty, and Mrs. Marchand is a free lance

"L'Engle's chronicle is filled with a sense of the adventure of life, as well as with an awareness of the terrible surprises that lie in wait for all of us... (A work) by turns joyous and melancholy, painful and touching."

-Diane Cole, USA Today

The award-winning author of A Wrinkle in Time, The Crosswicks Journal, and many other books, has written an extraordinary account of her long marriage. Because she does not flinch from sharing with us the hard places as well as the easy ones, her account of their life together is moving and thought-provoking.

"Surpasses (L'Engle's) best work so far... Reading the book is a profound spiritual experience."

ing a meeting in the Township courtroom in anticipation of the reconstruction of Cherry Hill Road from Foulet Drive to Cherry Valley Road. She has invited the residents of all the side streets - Montadale Circle, Crestview, Bouvant - to meet with the contractor who will be installing a new sewer line as well as reconstructing the roadway and with the utility companies - gas, water and electric. School officials involved in bus routes and traffic safety committee members are also included.

"People driving out of those streets have to know who's there doing what, so they know who to ask questions of," Mrs. Marchand reasons, adding: "If people realize the magnitude of the project, they won't foam at the mouth." She says some old and very large trees will have to eome down, but thinks maybe the Public Works Department can cut the trunks into sections that can go to the schools so that children can count the rings.

Mrs. Marehand says she has tried to see both sides of issues as they've come along and to arrive at the best possible solution. Among the projects initiated during the past three years which she would like to sec completed is the reconstruction of Grover Park, Hilltop Park and Community Park to gain more playing fields for the community. She points out that it has been many years since any of the recreational fa-cilities were updated. "There is no doubt in my mind that recreational facilities help the papulation as a whole, not just one segment," she says.

Problems of the Aging, Mrs. Mitchell is not as convinced on this point, particularly in relation to the $6 million projected cost, but says she is willing to see how it develops. As liaison to the Joint Commission on Aging, she has a keen interest in the problems of the aging in the eommunity. She would like to see a safety check program initiated whereby the elderly and disabled phone the police dispatcher between 8 and 11 a.m. every day. If someone does not eall in, the police would go to the residence to see if everything is all right.

She also would like to see an adult day care center established in Princeton. Mrs. Mitchell is also keenly interested in housing issues in Princeton and serves as liaison to the Town-ship Housing Board. "I am pleased we have hired a hous-ing coordinator," she says. "I am pleased with our Mt. Laurel compliance plan, and pleased to see Griggs Farm beginning to take hold." Mayor Marchand also speaks with pleasure of seeing lights on in the Griggs Farm units as residents move in.

'The units are selling as well or better than any other market development in the area," Mrs. Marehand notes.

Mrs. Mitchell's main concern is what she calls "the pitting of social groups against each other" for land, facilities and services. She would like to see an overlay to the master plan that would make clear how much open land is left and what the cost to the taxpayer if each parcel were to be developed residentially or commercially or left in open space. Although she thinks the acquisition of Mountain Lakes Preserve is "one of our greatest triumphs," she says no one figured out what it would mean in loss of the tax ratables that would have been gained from the development proposed by the Hillier group.

'We have a computer model of traffic impacts in the com-Mrs. Mitchell observes. "Now what we need is a fiscal model that would test the likely impacts of optional land uses - housing, open space, recreation — even agricultural." The idea of using land for "the common good" will have to become part of a landowner's decision-making, she feels, either by imposing regulations "from on high" or by landowners becoming willing to allow their land to be used for such purposes.

Achievements. Among the achievements that Mrs. Mitehell eites as reason for reelection are the joint Borough-Township effort to obtain a plan for increasing water delivery from Elizabethtown Water Company and the new firehouse to be built as part of Township municipal com-

"We have had less than two years to get our programs through," Mrs. Mitchell states. There have been some tough decisions to make, some of which weren't popular, such as sludge cake burning. We have not dueked any issue. The atmosphere at the Township is one of excitement, electricity and good will. We have done well, working hard and getting results."

For her part, Mayor Marchand takes issue with the charge made by the Republicans that relations with neighboring municipalities has deteriorated under Democrats. She says that the first day she was in office, she invited all the mayors to a coffee at her house for a discussion of eommon eoncerns and achieved a 100 percent attendance. "Then, when something came up, like the sewer bond

She thinks the growing school population is a concern for the future, as is whether or not the Fire Department and the Rescue Squad will have to go to paid staff instead of relying on volunteers. This by itself will cost the taxpayer several tax points and leads Mrs. Marchand to suggest that one way of keeping taxes down is for the community to support the volunteer recruitment efforts.

Discovering boxes of stalionery leftover from their 1986 campaign, the Marchand-Mitchell team changed "elect" to 're-elect" and November 7 to November 5 and added "We Recycle" to the letterhead. That, as much as anything, illustrates their upbeat mood.

Workshops Are Planned On Mortenson Math fdeas

The Princeton Montessori School has invited educators, parents and students to Mortenson Math workshops held at the school Friday evenings from 7 to 8.

The Mortensen math program is a curriculum that uses manipulative, visual approach to mathematics. The program is based upon teaching math concepts, not just mechanical processes. It seeks to create a real understanding of mathematics.

The math workshops are led by Judy Townsend, a Montessori educator who has been working with the Mortensen math curriculum for the past five years. Mrs. Townsend has conducted workshops on the curriculum throughout the country and in Canada to teachers, principals, math department heads, curriculum supervisors and interested

She has also tutored high school and college students and has provided adult education through courses at the Princeton Adult Education School and the South Brunswick Adult Education program. She is currently teaching an algebra and calculus class for elementary students on Saturdays at the Princeton YMCA.

The purpose of the workshops is to introduce Mortensen math to people interested in improving math education for children. The evenings are for parents and young children to have fun.

There is no charge for the workshops which will be held at the Princeton Montessori School, 487 Cherry Valley Road. To reserve a space, or

The first is "moving along" at the DOT with an undetermined date. The "point" for the one midway between Washington Road and Harrison Street has not been determined.

Ms. Lawlor does not mention an interchange with proposed S-92 in the vicinity of Ridge Road, but how this connection is made and the impacts on Kingston, Route 27 and Nassau Street are very much on the minds of Planning Board memhers seeking the study of traffic impacts.

Nor does she mention the College Road overpass only a mile or so from the proposed Scudders Mill Road overpass in what critics are calling "over-pass overkill." Ms. Lawlor points out that the College Road overpass was not on the DOT list initially and exists today because of pressures brought to bear by Princeton University and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation via a lawsuit and the subsequent offer to fund the entire project privately.

She also notes that the proposed Scudders Mill Road overpass is one which Plainsboro has been pushing for for several years. She says the size is something that could be scaled down in the future "if there is a great hue and cry" at the public informational centers, but that based on traffic projections and proposed develop-ment, the nine lanes are warranted - not only on the proposed Scudders Mill Road overpass but also on the College Road overpass.

BRING BACK FINANCIAL PLANNING & MANAGEMENT TO PRINCETON TOWNSHIP

VOTE TOMALIN & WOODBRIDGE

The high tax, high growth decisions of Township Committee over the past two years are dramatically changing the character of our community. The election of both Mike Tomalin and Dick Woodbrige would return Township Committee to experienced, professional leadership. We are prepared to do the job!

> TAXES — Township taxes soared an unprecedented 17% in 1989! Tomalin and Woodbridge have two decades of electoral experience with public budgets.

> OVERDEVELOPMENT — Tomalin and Woodbridge believe in reasonable downzoning. The present Township Committee is considering upzoning a development on Bunn Drive from 14 homes to more than 90. Our battered and overloaded road system cannot absorb this kind of increase in traffic. If elected we promise to keep overdevelopment under control.

> OPEN SPACE — As Republicans we want to continue the open space policy our party began: Turning Basin Park, Charles Rogers Wildlife Refuge, Mountain Lakes and more. We are determined to carry out the policy to preserve at least 25% of the Township as open space, called for in the Master Plan.

MIKE TOMALIN

We promise to bring back sound financial management and leadership to the Township. So many Township Committee meetings are now being held in closed session, the public excluded. Why? We will return the proceedings of the committee to the public. Bring back financial planning and sound management. Vote for Tomalin and Woodbridge because you can't afford another three years of Marchand and Mitchell.

DICK WOODBRIDGE

Princeton Ballet Concert Saturday at State Theatre

Princeton Ballet will present a special evening of dance entertainment and premieres featuring guest artist, Fernando Bujones, at the State Thea-tre in New Brunswick Saturday

The program, which opens the Princeton Ballet Company's season, will include the world premiere of the ballet Prokofiev's Third Piono Concert by Marjorie Mussman, ballet mistress for the company. The ballet is set to the first and third movements of Prokofiev's Third Piano Concert, Opus 26 and features solos and duets. Costumes have been created by A. Christina Gian-

Princeton Ballet Company member Septime Webre's new and yet-untitled ballet will also be premiered on October 28. Mr. Webre's previous ballet, D-Construction, was premiered by Princeton Ballet last February. His new ballet for six women and four men is performed to a medley of 1950s jazz music from "film noir" movies of that era. The music is a combination of scores from Sweet Smell of Success, The Man with the Golden Gun, Anna LaCosto and Anatomy of a Murder.

Princeton Ballet's Artistic Director, Dermot Burke, has revised his ballet Basics to conclude the evening's entertainment.

Tickets are $30 orchestra and loge, $25 balcony and $15 gallery. Tickets may be obtained at Ticket Centrol, 19 Livingston Avenue, New Brunswick, or telephone (20t) 246-7469.

World Premiere Set By Crossroads Theatre

Spunk, playwright George C. Wolfe's adaptation of three Zora Neale Hurston short stories, will have its world pre-Company on Saturday, Novem-pany. ber 11.

The production, which will run through December 10, marks Mr. Wolfe's first collaboration with crossroads since his successful play, The Colored Museum, premiered at the theatre in 1986. The play went on to Joseph Papp's New York Shakespeare Festival and has been performed in Europe and in numerous regional productions throughout the U.S.

As playwright and director of Spunk, Mr. Wolfe trades the biting social commentary and irreverant humor of The Colored Museum, for the earthy and often poignant tales taken from Ms. Hurston's collection entitled Spunk.

Spunk is the second Crossroads' production adapted from the work of the Harlem Renaissance writer. The 1988-89 sca-

Two of the three stories that comprise Spunk — "Sweat" and "The Gilded Six-Bits" are set in Ms. Hurston's hometown of Eatonville, Fla. The third, "Story in Harlem Slang," takes place on the streets of Harlem of the 1920s. Together, with music and dance, they explore a range of human emotions from love and hate to jealousy and greed.

The cast features Danitra Vance, Reggie Montgomery and Tico Wells, who also appeared in The Colored Museum. Also in the cast are Kevin Jackson, Betty K. Bynum and composer/performer Chic Street Man.

Born in Dublin in 1854, Oscar Wilde came from a highly un-conventional family. His mother was the Irish nationalist poet, Speranza, and his father was a famous aural surgeon. In 1874, young Wilde won a scholarship to Magdelene Coliege, Oxford University, and there, under the influence of Pater and Ruskin, began to cultivate his own eccentricities.

He once remarked to a friend, "I'll be a poet, a writer, a dramatist. Somehow or oth-

Dance Theatre of Harlem was established in 1969 by Arthur Mitchell, a former principal dancer with the New York City Ballet. Mr. Mitchell's mission was to introduce young people, particularly those who economically and culturally disadvantaged, to the beauty and discipline of dance. His pioneering efforts have grown into a worldrenowned, neo-classical ballet company with an accredited school and a full range of community outreach activities.

The McCarter program features John Butler's Othello, Lester Horton's The Beloved and Nijinsky's Rondo Capricctoso among other works

Pianist Plans Recital In Taplin Auditorium

The first event in the 1989-90 season of free concerts sponsored by The Friends of Music at Princeton will present pianist Glenn Jacobson in recital Sunday at 3 at Taplin Auditorium in Fine Hall. The recital will feature works of three 19th-century composers

Mr. Jacobson has established a distinguished career as soloist, chamber musician, and teacher. Since his New York debut at Town Hall, he has been heard in prestigious concert series, including the Library of Congress, the Phillips Collection and the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D.C., the Philadelphia Free Library and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. In Europe, he has performed recitals in London, Amsterdam, and Munich, in addition to successful tours of Eastern Europe and South America under the auspices of the United States State Depart-

Mr. Jacobson will begin the recital by playing Six Little Piono Pieces, op. 19 by Arnold Sehoenberg. Schoenberg wrote this collection as a lament on the death of Gustav Mahler. The six concentrated pieces differ greatly in mood, texture, and dynamics.

The recital will continue with the Fantasy in C Major, op. 17

by Robert Shumann. Originally cast as a sonata, Schumann rewrote the work several times creating a piece that integrates the principles of formal compositional style with the freedom and flourish of a fantasia.

After intermission, Mr. Jacobson will play Etudes, Book III by the American 20thcentury composer and pianist William Bolcom, followed by A Valentine for the New York Philharmonic Society by Anthony Philips Heinrich. An immigrant from Bohemia who settled in Louisville, Ky., Heinrich worked tirelessly to bring culture to rural America.

Annie and I by E.C. Phelps, is an early example of a syncopated waltz. Sub-titled ' Sonnet for Piano," the work is dedicated to his wife, Annie. The recital will close with the Souvenir de Mount Vernon by George F. Bristow, who grew up in Brooklyn and joined the New York Philharmonic Society as a violinist at the age of 16.

Seating is unreserved. Tickets, priced at $10 general admission and $2 for students (with ID), are available through the Richardson box office, open 4 to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. Telephone reservations may be made with VISA and MasterCard by calling 258-5000.

Taplin Auditorium is located in Fine Hall at the corner of Ivy Lane and Washington Road. Parking is available near Palmer Stadium.

Interior Design Service Offers International Flair

Now that there is more than just a hint of fall in the air, and many people are moving inside from the terrace and patio, they are beginning to think about redecorating. How about that room that needs freshening up? Or maybe new drapes and a sofa are the key. Perhaps you want a whole new look. Whatever the need, in this age of specialization and limited time, more and more people are turning to interior designers for help.

'In this area, more people are using designers than before," reports interior designer Barbara Campbell. "People are so busy now. It's really a matter of time. We have the experience and back-ground, and we have a variety of sources at our disposal. Between the two of us, we know just about every place that exists to find things."

Mrs. Campbell and her part-ner Olivia Nicholas of Barbara Campbell Interior Design have many years of experience in the design field. Their creative interest extends to fashion and floral design and painting, as well as interior design. "I've been a designer in Princeton since 1984, and before that I worked as a designer in new York for five years," notes Mrs. Campbell. "I have a degree in interior design from the Fashion Institute of Technology, and Olivia was an art history major at Harvard, took design at Parsons and has been a free-lance designer here and abroad.

"We both feel Princeton has changed," she adds. "It's become more and more sophisticated, more interna-tional. This reflects our style too. We are both well-traveled. Olivia has lived and worked in Geneva. We offer more of an international style than Princeton has been used to in the

"This is very important space that makes a room. You for the client," explains Mrs. Nicholas, "It's like choosing your hair dresser or dentist. There should be a rapport."

Mrs. Campbell adds that during this first visit (usually one hour), clients and designers try to come to a meeting of minds about the scope and direction of

The creative challenges of both the design itself and searching for just the right piece, fabric or color also appeals to the designers. "We have sources everywhere," reports Mrs. Campbell. "We have access to woodworkers, metal workers, sculptors and painters, as well as sources for small French antiques. We've ferreted out things from all over. I've called consulates to find things, if necessary. We'll leave no stone unturned!"

"I love finding beautiful things," remarks Mrs. Nicholas. "I've always loved beatiful things, and that enthusiasm has never waned. I never tire of looking at them."

There is no cost to customers specific items chosen.

Variety of Frames, Art At Hopewell Frame Shop

'When I first discovered this work, I didn't realize that people actually did this for a living. I also didn't know what it entailed, how much was involved. But the first time I cut a mat, it came to me in a flash! I had found exactly what I wanted to

Not everyone is as lucky as Abby Lothstein Frantz, owner of the Hopewell Frame Shop and Art Gallery in Hopewell House Square in Hopewell. Now celebrating the shop's tenth anniversary, she is just as enthusiastic as she was in those early days. "I love what I do. It's still fun and always challenging."

Mrs. Frantz had worked in frame shops in Lawrenceville and Princeton before opening the creative aspects. I don't paint, but I admire it. The aspect of independence provided by having my own business also appealed to me.'

Customers are often indecisive when first considering tries to help them with suggestions and advice but, ultimate- XIV and XV, replicas and look like different substances, ly, they determine what is best for them. "Everyone actually and styles. knows what they want," she explains, "but they often have no confidence. I prefer to have work together. And I'll always within a budget, which is nearly always the case.

"When deciding on a frame," they want birdseye maple, they she continues, "I have found that being objective about the something that looks like it." artwork is a help. The object of framing is to use matting and framing that will complement the work. It will not change it frame it to the artwork.

Needlepoint to Photos. Mrs. Frantz does all the framing herself, and the work can take approximately two weeks, depending on the scope of the job. She has framed a variety of items from art to needlepoint to mirrors to family photos. "Thirty percent of my framing is needlepoint," she notes, "and this has remained very steady. Another third is limited-edition prints, and the final third is children's art, original art (oils and watercolors) and a rematting of old pieces and odds and Occasionally, she must use her expertise to come up with a suitable frame for an unusual item. A case in point was the worn dog collar of a beloved pet. "One time a woman came in with the collar and tags of her 20-year-old dog that had just died. We tried to decide what to do. Finally, I used a lid from a Quaker Oats oatmeal box, covered it with velvet, put the collar around it and shadow boxed it. It really pleased the lady to have this memen-

She adds that "Whatever type of frame people want, whether metal or wood, I try to offer them the best in that category. There is a big demand now for ornate period framing. I've gotten a whole line of Louis

"Not so much art history, as in biggest part of the business, but selling art has evolved into a full-time operation, too. I now sell a lot more art each year than I did the year before. I especially deal in etchings and engravings," says Abby Lothstein Frantz, owner of the Hopewell Frame Shop and Art Gallery in Hopewell. The shop carries more than 500 samples of different types of wood, metal and a new frame, she notes, and she goldleaf frames, as well as a variety of artwork.

Mrs. Frantz is proud of the variety of artwork in her shop. 'I carry the work of Rachel Badeau, an artist who does hand-colored etchings, and of Gerald Lubeck, a New Jersey artist who is known for his lithographs.

"I also carry the watercolors of J.N. Betz, who does florals which are painted from her own garden. And Kathleen Cantin is an artist Irom Vermont, whose work consists of handcolored engravings of Vermont scenes. I also have steel engravings of New York scenes from the 1850s and 1860s, which I have matted."

Posters Too. In addition the shop offers an assortment of posters and a selection of framed antique cigarette cards. "These are very popular," notes Mrs. Frantz. "They are pictures of dogs, cats, horses, hunting scenes, train engines, airplanes, etc. They were used in the 1800s and early 1900s to help advertise different brands of cigarettes.

Posters are $25 and $30 unframed, cigarette cards (in-cluding gold frames and brass plaques) $90 and up, and other artwork is $125 and up.

All the artwork will be on display in the shop's winter show, "Antiquities," which officially begins the second week in November.

After 10 years in Hopewell, Mrs. Frantz is very happy both with her work and her location. "It is special being in Hope-well," she comments. "It's pretty, still a small town, and in spite of the development going on around us, it is pretty much the same as it was 10 years ago. My business is not transient or for tourists. A lot of my customers are from other areas but work here. I get to know them. I see their kids grow up. There is continuity

"I really enjoy dealing with the public," she adds. "I love helping the customers. This job is so much fun!"

Hopewell Frame Shop is open Tuesday through Friday,

New Jersey Art Colonies Are Topic of Lecture

William H. Gerdts, author of Painting and Sculpture in Visit to N.Y. Museums New Jersey, will present a lecture on the art history of New Jersey on Thursday, November 2, at 8 p.m. in the Assembly Room of the Nassau Presbyterian Church. The lecture is being presented in conjunction with the Historical Society's exhibition at The Squibb Gallery, 'A Pleasant Likeness: Portraits and Landscapes of Central New Jersey," for which Dr. Gerdts wrote the catalogue introduction.

The lecture is Iree of charge and open to the public. Entitled "New Jersey Art Colonies of the 19th and Early 20th Centuries," the slide talk will explore the artistic communities that evolved during the past century in New Jersey towns such as Montclair, Nutley, Fort Lee, and Ridgelield.

Currently professor of art history at the Graduate School of the City University of New York, Dr. Gerdts served as curator of painting and sculpture at The Newark Museum for more than 12 years. His 1964 book on New Jersey art remains the definitive study on the subject, and his other publications on American art include Ameriicon Neo-Classical Sculpture: The Marble Resurrection, The Great American Nude: A History in Art, and American Impressionism. He has also published monographs on American artists Henry Inman and Washington Alston, and authored numerous exhibition catalogues.

Tigers Overcome Slow Start in Victory over Fordham; Will Need Better Effort to Defeat Harvard Saturday

Of all the games Princeton has played in its 120-year football history, the 1,000th - last Saturday's non-league matchup against Fordham - wasn't among the most difficult. With quarterback Joel Sharp firing three touchdown passes against an overmatched Ram defense, the Tigers (4-1-1, 3-0-0 in the lvy League) trounced the Colonial Leaguers, 38-20, for their third convincing victory in as many

Harvard Game. The Tigers will try to sustain their momentum and remain atop the Ivy standings this Saturday, when they confront Harvard (2-4, 2-1 Ivy) at Memorial Stadium in Cambridge, Mass. The Crimson broke a four-game losing skid last Saturday with a narrow 6-5 defeat of visiting Dartmouth. The game will be televised live by ESPN starting at 12 p.m. If they are to get past the struggling Cantabs, the Tigers will need another effort like last week's from Sharp, who has emerged as an extremely capable successor to Jason Garrett, last year's signalcaller and Ivy MVP. The 5-foot-9 Texan completed only 12 of 20 passes for 143 yards, but that included the three first-half touchdowns and - for the third straight week — no interceptions. Sharp also ran well out of the option set, racking up 50 yards on 11 carries and keeping nine yards for another touchdown. Sharp's running helped pick up some slack for star halfback Judd Garrett, who had what for him was an off day with "only" 97 yards rushing oo 29 carries.

"The real key today was Joel Sharp," said Tosches. "Judd's not going to do it all for us. People are ganging up on him, but while you take one thing away, you can't take everything

Princeton's defense, perhaps overconfident against a Ram offense that had not scored in double figures in four games versus I-AA foes, took very little away from Fordham in the early going. On the sixth play of the game, flanker Scott Helverson snared a pass from quarterback Joe DiGregorio along the left sideline and outran a host of defenders for a 57-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead. After a Tiger punt, DiGregorio had the Rams moving again, but linebacker and team captain Franco Pagnanelli came up with the first of his two fumble recoveries to kill the drive at the Tiger 37.

From there, Princeton marched 63 yards to even the score, covering the last 30 on a high floater from Sharp to wideout Tommy Haan in the back corner of the end zone. Undaunted, the Rams struck right back. With more than 1,000 Fordsham fans in attendance and cheering wildly, tailback Rick Hollawell took a handoff over left guard, cut back right and broke three tackles for an electrifying 68-yard touchdown. The extra point made it 14-7. and the Palmer partisans began to grumble.

Tide Turns. Finally, the tide started to turn. Chris Lutz booted a 31-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 14-10 early in the second quarter, and on the Bengals' next possession, Sharp marched them 90 yards in 17 plays for the go-ahead score. It came on a four-yard scoring flip to Garrett and, with Lutz' PAT, made the score 17-

Fordham's attack stalled against the stiffening Tiger defense, and after a short punt, Princeton was again in business. Lutz came on to try another 31-yarder, this time missing wide left. But a Fordham defender was called for an unusual head-slapping penalty, giving the Tigers a first down at the Ram 7. Two plays later, Sharp connected with wideout his club's first-period letdown Scott Gibbs for a six-yard touchdown and a 24-14 halftime

> 'That penalty right before the half really hurt me," said Fordham coach Larry Glueck. "It gave them another chance to score at a time when we were still in the game.'

In any event, the Rams weren't in the game for long after the intermission. Princeton drove 83 yards with the secondhalf kickoff, Sharp keep-

Peddie Domination Ended By Hun School Gridders

"Of all the teams in my years I've been here, they're the one team that has handled us. So it's nice to beat them once in a while.'

Enjoying his moment of payback was Hun football eoach Bill Long, who guided his Raiders to an 18-10 win Saturday over Peddie School in Hightstown before a Golden Falcon homecoming crowd. "A big win, a big win," beamed Long after the contest. The win increased Hun's record to 5-1 with three games left to play.

There were reports that this was the first time in more than 20 years that Hun had defeated Peddie on its home field. Long was not sure how many years were involved (he did allow "it's been a while") but he was crystal clear about remember-

It's Back to Ivy Wars for 4-1-1 Tigers And 2-4 Harvard Team Will Not Be Easy

Now that Princeton's 1,000th football game, a less than memorable whipping of helpless Fordham, has passed into history, it's time for what could be a very memorable stretch run for the lvy title.

Schedules obviously are constructed years in advance, so it's just the luck of the draw (with an assist from ESPN on the date change for Cornell/Penn) that has the top four teams all playing each other the final four weeks. The Tigers, along with Penn and Yale, have yet to lose a league game; Cornell suffered its first loss last week at Brown.

The round robin starts this Saturday when the Quakers meet the Elis in the Bowl. The result will give the first real indication of whether the Red and Blue will hold up as the heavy pre-season favorite. Its struggles to defeat weak Columbia and Brown teams have aroused suspicions that the Quakers can be had. A road win over what appears to be a solid Yale team would prove otherwise.

Cornell and Princeton each have one more week before they enter the round robin. Cornell should be able to take the measure of Dartmouth on its home field at Ithaca, but the Tigers will have to be careful not to look ahead.

Playing Harvard in Cambridge will be a tricky proposition at best in a stadium where Old Nassau has won just once in this decade, an 11-6 defensive struggle in 1985. The Crimson has suffered several one-sided losses this season, but is still dangerous. The 6-5 (reads more like a basehall score) beating of Dartmouth Saturday, Icaves the Cantabs with a 2-1 league mark, and still in the race.

However, the role of spoiler rather than contender seems more suitable at this point for Joe Restic's troops, and Princeton will have to be on guard this weekend. If it can climb another notch on the ladder, to a 4-0 Ivy mark, it will set the stage for three big November contests.

Right now the four contenders have to be rated as dead even in ability. What differences there are in offensive or defensive abilities will not be the deciding factor. The team that comes away with the title after the final game is played on Thanksgiving Day in Philadelphia will be the one who was best prepared mentally to play in top form each week.

There is the intriguing possibility that Yale and Princeton could both enter their November 11 meeting in Palmer Stadium undefeated in league play. Both have some heavy work ahead to make it happen, but if both still have unblemished league marks, it would be the first time since 1964 that has occurred. The game was in the Bowl that day, and the Tigers, led by captain Cosmo Iacavazzi, won 35-14.

Hun in his first two years as coach of the Raiders. The scores were 25-6 and 23-8.

Hun is part of what Long refers to as a "mini conference" comprised of Hun, Peddie, Blair and Admiral Fareach of the four points to. Since Hun has already played Peddie and Admiral Farragut, losing 13-12 to the Middies for its only loss, the challenge now, says Long, as he sees it, is to go right into next week's game without a chance to catch its collective breath. "ft's tough," he said.

Pingry, which Hun will host Saturday at 2, is undefeated with a 6-0 mark, having stopped St. Peters High School of New running the ball," agreed Long. with a 6-0 mark, having stopped Brunswick in its last start. A ing what Peddie had done to win would put Hun in good position in the NJISAA Class A state title race. "But somebody has to beat Farragut," noted Long, "because they haven't lost to an A school yet."

112 Yords for Kertesz. Hun rgut. Those are the games that dominated the first half of play against the Falcons when it scored all three of its touchdowns, led by the running of its veteran halfback Steve Kertesz. Kertesz rushed for 112 yards in 17 carries and scored twice on runs of one and three yards - his fifth and sixth of the season. His six TDs represent a third of the 18 Hun has scored in its first six games.

Homecoming Is Saturday As PHS Gridders Resume

Having had to forfeit its game last week with Notre Dame because it had too few healthy players in condition to play, the Princeton High School football team is looking ahead to homecoming festivities and a Saturday contest with McCor-

The contest will be played at the PHS field at 11. The game is being dedicated to the Princeton High School Alumni and (with an eye to future?) to the Princeton High freshman football squad. There will be free admission to alumni and faculty and reserved seating. A reception after the game is being sponsored by the Princeton High School Football Booster Actually, both the PHS and McCorristin teams need a boost. Both are winless in the Valley Division of the Colonial Valley Conference, although the Little Tigers have tied two of the five games they have played. McCorristin, which did not play last week, is 0-4.

Following the meeting with the Iron Mikes, PHS will entertain once-beaten West Windsor, have an open date, and end its season by hosting Jamesburg.

Numbers Did Not Add Up. The Little Tigers were done in by the numbers last week. The lack of them. Simply put, they did not have enough players to take on a powerful, unbeaten Notre Dame team that, in sharp contrast, has an abundance of talent — and depth.

Even as he was discussing the upcoming Notre Dame game with reporters, following Princeton's 42-33 loss in a freewheeling contest with Hamilton, PHS coach Kurt Vollherbst sensed there would be attempts from parents and officials to cancel the game. it was.

PHS Homecoming Invitation

Past players on the Princeton High football team are invited to support the present PHS team at Homecoming Saturday, when the Little Tigers will play McCorristin High at 11.

PHS alumni football players, their families and retired faculty members will be admitted free to the game. Former players are encouraged to contact as many former teammates as possible. There will be a reception after the game. Support the Little Tigers.

ONE REASON WHY PHS DID NOT PLAY NOTRE DAME: Princeton High football guard Barton Metcall is helped off the field by trainer Eric Hoover, after sustaining an injury in the Hamilton game. A two-way lineman, the 5-9, 160-pound Metcalf underwent surgery five days later to repair torn ligaments and has been lost for the rest of the season. His injury one of a half-dozen sustained by the Blue and White in the three-hour contest — reduced the roster of Little Tigers able to play below 15 and prompted school officials to forfeit Friday night's scheduled conlest with undefeated Notre Dame.

guard Bart Metealf who sustained torn ligaments in his knee, was operated on, and who lost for the rest of the season.

'We would have been up to 12 possibly 13 for the game Friday night - just too few to play," said Parsons. The team doctor, she said, told her from a medical standpoint it was inadvisable to play.

Convinced, Parsons checked with NJSIAA officials about the forfeit procedure and was told that, usually, it was handled through the school principals. She passed on her decision to PHS principal John Sakala who, in turn, called Notre Dame principal Michael Carr and informed him of Princeton's intention to forfeit Friday night's game.

The decision came as no surprise to ND coach Happy Moore who had witnessed Princeton's loss to Hamilton. "By Tuesday night we were almost positive this was going to happen," he said. "Our kids are obviously very disappointed and at the same time I feel very bad for the the Princeton players, especially the seniors." The ND-PHS contest would have been Notre Dame's first home game of the season.

Vollherbst was also disappointed in the decision and while he said he couldn't totally agree with it, he would go From the start, he made it along with it. #### PHS Girls Nip Hornets On Neuger's 8th Goal

The Princeton High girls' soccer team has enjoyed one of its best seasons in a long while this fall and one of the prime reasons has been the play of freshman Kathy Neuger.

Neuger scored her eighth goal of the season two minutes into the game Monday, as the Little Tigers blanked Hamilton, 1-0, to improve to 6-8-1. Another freshman, goalie, Shannon Koch, then made the lone score stand up as she recorded 15 saves. Her counterpart in the Hamilton goal, Jessica Zimmerman was just as effective with 15 saves of her own. For the home team Hornets the loss was their ninth this year against two wins and a tie.

With her eighth goal, Neuger now has twice as many as the next leading scorer on the team, Joan Sullivan.

The Little Tigers are one of eight teams that will compete in the annual Mercer County tournament which begins this weekend.

PHS, seeded seventh, will play second-seeded Peddie School on Saturday at 2 in a first-round contest at the Falcons' Hightstown campus. Notre Dame drew the top seed when undefeated Steinert, ranked ninth nationally, opted not to enter the tournament this

The surviving four teams will meet in the semi-finals next Wednesday, Nov. 1, at Mercer Park. The finals will be the following Wednesday.

The season for the Princeton High boys' teams just gets longer and longer. The Little Tigers lost again on Monday when they were tripped up by Hamilton, 3-1.

Junior forward Victor Ordonez scored the lone goal for PHS in the first period. The Lit-

Recycling in Mercer County is here.

All it takes is 3 simple steps.

Mercer County mode recycling easy.

Now recycling is as easy as taking out the garbage. So get started right away with your free County recycling can.

There's no sorting.

The Mercer County mandatory recycling program makes recycling simple. Now green, brown and clear glass jars and bottles, and aluminum, fin and bimetal food and beverage containers may all be mixed together in one recycling can. You don't have to sort them or remove labels. Just rinse them, Newspapers and glossy newspaper inserts can be bagged in paper grocery bags (not plastic) or fied

Now there's curbside pickup.

Recyclables will be picked up on the same day, once every other week. On recycling days, all you have to do is put out recyclables just like you put out your garbage. Cheek the schedule below for the pickup date in your neighborhood.

Give recycling all you've got.

- Newspapers
- · Glossy newspaper inserts
- · Glass jars and bottles Glass soda bottles*
- · Soda cans · Soup cans
- · Vegetable cans Fruit cans
  - - Juice cans · Pet-food cans

Plastic soda bottles will be accepted for recycling by the end of 1989.

tle Tigers have won only twice this fall.

No States for Field Hockey. The shock on their personal Richter scale must have measured in the 8.0 range. The Princeton High field hockey team did not qualify for the State tournament.

The last time that happened John Kennedy may have been President. School statisticians will have to look it up, but for certain it doesn't happen often. The Little Tigers simply ran out of playing dates and did not have a .500 record by Friday's cutoff date.

Princeton, which was also uncharacteristically knocked out of the Mercer County Tournament in the first round, took out its frustration Monday against Hamilton when it blanked the visiting Hornets, 5-0. The five goals were the most PHS has scored in any game this season.

Lia Moore scored twice for PHS and Sarah Willard scored her third goal of the season. Scoring for the first time for the Little Tigers were junior Nicole Miros, who also had an assist, and sophomore Patrice Lee. Miros had played defense until this game.

Michelle Sasso and Tracey Garito combined for six saves in goal for the Little Tigers, while Hornet goalie Shelly Stevenson had 18. PHS outshot the Hornets, 34-6, in winning for the fifth time in 11 games this season. Left for coach Joyce Jones's club is a final regular season game this Wednesday against Nottingham and makeup games against Lawrence and Hamilton.

Tennis Team Bows. Further evidence that this has not been a good fall for PHS teams was displayed Monday when the girls tennis team was defeated by Montgomery, 4-1. Usually on top of the hill in Mercer County, coach Bill Humes's team is below the .500 mark at 4-5.

PHS first singles player Kim Crusey kept her regular-season record unsullied by defeating Kim Malinowski, 6-1, 7-5, but the rest was all Cougars

Luiza Osnovikova and Amy Smith lost singles matches, Smith extending Sherri Liccioni, 6-4, 7-6 (7-4). In doubles play, Susan Rosenfeld and Stephanie Krauthamer lost in straight sets and Anna Studebaker and Caroline Devereux lost a three-setter at second doubles, 6-2, 4-6, 2-6.

In a cross country tri-meet Monday, the PHS boys' team defeated Pennington School, 15-50 but lost to Hopewell Valley, 24-35. Hopewell Valley's Brian McCormack covered the 3.1mile Hopewell course the fastest with a winning time of 16:43. Princeton's Matt Pickens second in 17:11 and Doug

PHS's Matt Wilkinson to Wrestle For Club Team In Switzerland

Matt Wilkinson, who this fall led the Princeton High girls' soccer team to a berth in the Mercer County Tournament in his first year as coach of that sport, is leaving Princeton for a month Friday to wrestle for a club team in Switzerland.

One of the finest wrestlers ever to take to the mat for Princeton High, Wilkinson will wrestle five matches in the 114.5 pound division for a club team sponsored by the Adidas shoe manufac-

The club system in Switzerland is very popular, reports Wilkinson, and each team can bring over one foreign competitor to fill a spot in which it can't fill a weight.

Wilkinson's selection was a result, he said, of his wrestling last June for the United States in an open international tournament in Italy. While there, he met the coach of the Switzerland Olympic wrestling team.

"I'm looking to pick up some good wrestling stuff for myself and the kids," said Wilkinson. "Soccer had kept me occupied these past few weeks but I'm starting to gear up for the wrestling season." He will return just in time to start another season as coach of the PHS wrestling team.

Hun School Versus Peddie In State Match Monday

The Hun School soccer team will host Peddie Monday at 2:30 in a semi-final game in the NJISAA Class A State soccer tournament. Hun is seeded secand, Peddie third.

In the other semi-final the same day, top-seeded Lawrenceville School will host fourth-seeded Blair. In previous regular-season matches, Hun tied both Lawrenceville (3-3) and Blair (1-1) and on Saturday in Hightstown, before a Peddie homecoming day crowd, it was defeated by the Falcons, 4-1.

Despite his team's loss in a preview of Monday's return match, Hun coach Frank Rizzo vowed, "We'll beat this team on Monday.

Against Peddie, Hun was missing two starters: Mike Vogler sidelined with a knee injury, and leading scorer Stefano Rosso, who was benched for two games for being redcarded in the tie with Blair. Rizzo was not buying that as an excuse, however, insisting that Hun had 20 players ready who could have gotten the job done.

What had Rizzo more concerned was the lackluster defensive play of his Raiders in the first half when Peddie took a 1-0 lead on first-period goal by DiMarco. Rizzo used the word "shoddy" to describe the Hun Frank Rizzo vows his team will defense.

Hun Blanks Stuart, 5-0 ™ In Monday Tennis Match

The Hun School girls' tennis team prepped for its participation in the Prep School A State tournament this week by defeating Stuart County Day School Monday, 5-0.

Featured, in the State tourney is a scheduled return match between Lawrenceville ≥ and Hun and their respective top singles players who have dominated the sport in this area: Hun's Kristy Kungl and the Big Red's undefeated freshman sensation Farley Taylor. Two of Kungl's three losses this year have come at the hands of

In the Stuart match, Kungl needed less than 45 minutes to whitewash Natasha Dickey, 6-0, 6-0. Teammate Marisa Schell Q dusted off Stuart's Katie Donovan, 6-0, 6-1, at second singles, and Nancy Peterson handled Mamta Chugh, 6-1, 6-2, in their third singles match.

The doubles play was equally lopsided in Hun's favor. Kristen Gangemi and Rachel Bendavid blanked Lori Mastrosimone and Michele McCaron, 6-0, 6-0, while Wendy Peterson and Leigh Kowalski

PHS State Bid Thwarted By McCorristin Booters

The Princeton High girls' soccer team was at the edge last week with no room to maneuver.

Needing two wins in two days to qualify for the NJSIAA State tournament and confronted with seemingly endless days of rain, the Little Tigers gave it their best shot — but they will have to wait until next year. Although PHS did manage to get that first game in, the vital second game became academic when McCorristin upset the Little Tigers, 3-0.

Last Saturday, for the first time all season, even in other une-sided defeats, PDS had trouble moving the ball on the ground. The running attack netted just five yards in the first half.

PDS did manage one drive downfield early in the game, but when St. Andrews stopped that, the Panthers did not get rolling again until the second half. Zach Gursky gained almost all of his 52 yards in the final two periods, and ran three yards for Princeton Day's lone score in the fourth quarter. Harvey Bradley added 41 yards.

PDS Girls Seeded Third In Prep A Field Hockey

It hasn't exactly been a banner year for the Princeton Day field hockey team with its 1-4-4 record, but some good news has come the Panthers' way.

The seeding committee for the Prep A tournament, which starts this week has placed coach Jill Thomas's team third in the seedings. Undefeated Lawrenceville is first, and Dwight Englewood is second. Stuart and Hun, which have both beaten Princeton Day, are in the Prep B division.

Thus, the Blue and White will get home field advantage for its first round contest with Mount Saint Mary set for this Thursday at 3:30. Should it win that game it would meet the winner of the Dwight Englewood/ Moatclair-Kimberley match-up in the semifinals on Tuesday,

Since DE is ranked second, PDS would face a long return trip to north Jersey. However,

PDS played perhaps its best 6, at Rutgers Prep. In the game of the season there in meantime, it will have a warm-September, a 1-1 tie.

At any rate whoever gets into the Thursday, November 2 finals is virtually certain to face undefeated Lawrenceville.

The opposition in the last three contests has been easier for the Blue and White, and it has taken full advantage of the disparity in ability, scoring 17 goals while allowing none.

After the 4-0 blanking of Rutgers Prep, PDS wiped out Ranney, 6-0, last Thursday in

On Saturday, it played just two periods on a sloppy field, but pounded in seven goals to defeat St. Mary's Hall, 7-0, in the first round of the Prep B tournament. Because of the condition of the field, the game was called at halftime by mutual consent.

Chris Lake paced the Panthers' offense with a hat trick. Dave Suomi, Dave Mason, Dave Jackson and Arne Knudson added solo tallies. Goalie John Belanger did not have to make a single save.

PDS is now 7-4 on the season with regular-season games remaining against Pennington this Friday and Wardlaw and St. Joseph's next week.

PDS Girls' Soccer Hoping This Might Be the Year

By now anyone who cares about the Princeton Day girls' soccer team is well aware of the Panthers' disappointing end to last season.

The Panthers had their best shot in years to capture the Prep A Tournament, but lost a tough game to Peddie, 3-1, in the semifinals. What made the defeat especially hard to swallow was that the Blue and White had already beaten the Falcons twice.

Now it's tournament time again, and Princeton Day is seeded second behind St. Elizabeth with Peddie third. The Panthers will face Dwight Englewood in the first round this Friday at home. A victory there will earn them a rematch with the winner of the Peddie/ Lawrenceville game. In either case PDS will have revenge in mind. The semilinals are set for this Tuesday at PDS, because it is the higher seed.

It will be payback time for the loss to Peddie a year ago, and to Lawrenceville as well. The Larries are only seeded sixth in this tournament, but they knocked off PDS, 2-0, in the rain last Wednesday. Two second-period goals by the home side gave it the victory.

Barbara B. Sigmund, mayor of Princeton Borough, will receive the annual award of the Emmanuel Cancer Foundation on Friday, November 3. Mayor Sigmund will be honored at the Foundation's seventh annual dinner dance gala at the Parsippany Hilton.

According to Foundation Executive Director, Joanne Bigley, "The theme of this year's fall event is 'courage,' a remarkable human strength which our organization witnesses daily as our families struggle with the disease of cancer in their children, Mayor Sigmund is a model of that kind of courage, for, having lost an eye to cancer during her 1982 Senate campaign, she went on to surmount her physical handicap and to serve as an inspiration to all of us."

The foundation was established in 1981 by Joseph and Susan Vizzoni of Summit following the death from cancer of their son, Emmanuel. Its purpose is to provide financial assistance and emotional and spiritual support to any New Jersey family whose child aged 21 years or younger has a diagnosis of cancer. Since inception, the foundation has helped more than 500 families in all 21 counties throughout the State, and seen its budget multiply six times over.

months, are the major reasons for the delayed opening.

A school bond referendum is scheduled for February, 1990, on the Johnson Park addition. The Regional School Board announced its intention earlier to include additional capital expenditures in the bond issue. Several of these items - including replacement of the Princeton High School roof were intentionally excluded from this year's capital budget in anticipation of rolling them into the bond issue.

Other projects which might be funded by the bond include an increase in the size of the gym and the library at John Witherspoon Middle School; bringing all kindergarten classroom space up to State code; placing computer laboratories throughout the elementary schools; and undertaking a major renova-tion of the Littlebrook playground.

"I am concerned about not meeting the deadlines," said Committee Member Jane Pearce. "We have very full elementary schools. Maybe we should look at temporary schools.

Michael Tomalin, another committee member, voiced concern that the environment of the community has changed as a result of the increasing realization that there are a lot of capital needs ahead.

"We can't go to the community too frequently with a bond issue," he said. "If we roll a lot of things into a single bond issue, given other demands, it's going to be tough sledding. This is a tougher climate for selling a bond issue than I would have said six months ago.'

A decline in student enrollment led to the closing of Johnson Park School in 1981 and of Littlebrook in 1983. The Littlebrook closing resulted in a shift of the fifth grade from elementary school to middle

Only two elementary schools remained open - Riverside and Community Park. Enrollment then began to rise, and Littlebrook was reopened in September, 1988. A continually expanding elementary school population led to the School Board decisinn not only to reopen Johnson Park, but to add 12 classrooms to the building, which is located off Rosedale Road.

The February school bond issue was originally estimated to be in the neighborhood of $4 million. The need to increase the square footage has brought the amount needed just for Johnson Park to more than $4 million. The last three school bond issues have all been in the area of $3 million, The largest, іп 1983, wəs $3.7 million.

tion, is expected to bring revised plans to the next meeting of the bond committee, which is scheduled for Monday night. In the meantime, committee members will begin to identify the most pressing capital needs, with an eye toward including them in the bond issue.

The Bond Referendum Advisory Committee is expected to make its final report to the School Board by the end of November said that as an alternative to the 46-lot subdivision they could bring in a S1-unit cluster development, which would meet the zoning requirements.

Such a plan would also be in the Planning Board's jurisdietion. Moreover a 51-unit cluster was specified in the agreement to settle a lawsuit brought by DKM to protest the Township's reduction in the amount of density allowed on that tract.

The property is an irregularly shaped tract extending back into the woods toward Stuart Road West. Along the front of the property are two ponds that are part of a chain of ponds that begin on the Princeton Day School property now owned by the Hillier organization. The concept plan shows open space surrounding these ponds.

The main entrance would be from Pretty Brook Road, with another entrance from Stuart Road West. A "spine" road with five cul-de-saes extending off it is shown. The lots are all one acre or more, except for three lots in the far west corner which are shown with boulder field conservation easements. On the original plan, this whole area was to be in open space.

Although the lot sizes have been increased somewhat in the new concept plan, they are not large enough to conform to the zoning requirements in that area. Most of the tract is in the R-1 zone, where two acre minimum lots are required. The western part of the property is in the R-A zone, where four acre minimum lots are the

Therefore "Type C" or "hardship" variances will be required for the lot sizes throughout the tract. Unlike the density variance, this is one which the Planning Board ean

Members of the Planning Board worked with DKM representatives over the past two years to arrive at a plan that satisfies certain Township goals. One of the goals was the dedication by the developer of the eight acres of the tract which contains Tent rock as an addition to the Woodfield Reservation.

The leaves on deciduous treas change color because the variations of temperature and periods of daylight cause the leaves to stop their foodmaking process. This process takes place in numerous leaf cells that contain chlorophyll, which absorbs energy from sunlight and uses it in transforming carbon dioxide and water into carbohydrates (sugar and starch).

The leaves also contain caratanaids, yellow or orange pigment. During most of the year greater amounts of green coloring mask these yellowish colors. When food-making stops in the fall the green color disappears. The yellowish colors become visible and give leaves their fall splandor. The yellow color leaves are usually Poplar, Ginkgo, Norway Maple, Hickory, Yellowwood Birch and Redbud.

Additional chemical changes may occur and cause other pigments to form, varying from yellow to red to blue. The dogwoods and Sumac give the reddish and purplish fall colors.

Jacob's Creek Road New Listing

High on a hill and secluded by luxuriant trees, this unique Contemporary of natural cedar will appeal to those who love light bright rooms created by the generous use of glass in walls, windows and skylights. A red door opens to a stunning vista of white from floors to vaulted ceilings. The step-down living room has a fireplace, the dining room opens to a deck. The sparkling white kitchen adjoins the family room and also opens to the deck. The master suite includes a study and there is a powder room. On second floor — two bedrooms and a bath. On third — a loft/studio with skylight. A charming retreat or year round home.

Main Street, Kingston New Listing

Kingston - the quaint historic village whose name, like Princeton, is reminiscent of our early years under royalty. This house, solidly built in the early 20th century, has the appearance of a charming cottage but actually is a spacious two story home. An inviting porch opens to a large living room with fireplace, dining room, den, powder room, modern kitchen and panelled breakfast room. On second floor — a hall with bookshelves, four bedrooms, 2 baths and a study. Insulated attic. Natural woodwork and many built-ins are attractive features. The rear yard has ample space for outdoor activities and a detached 2 car garage. An excellent value at

JUST REDUCED $20,000, ON AN INVITING COURTYARD ALMOST IN PRINCETON UNIVERSITY is a special townhouse like no other. The quiet interior location makes it a delight to live in downtown Princeton while walking to everything the University offers. Inside this old looking brick beauty is a living room with fireplace and built-in bookcases overlooking a delightful flagstone terrace and sunken patio, a dining room with bay window, and a modern kitchen overlooking the courtyard. Upstairs, is a master suite with its own fireplace and bath plus two more additional bedrooms and a bath. Try the carefree lifestyle in Princeton University and have your own "pied-a-terre", unlike any you've scen. Call today.

THIS CHARMING HOME ON A TREE LINED STREET IS WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF THE UNIVERSITY AND TOWN. And situated on a professionally landscaped lot with a lovely rear garden backing on a park. Inside is a front-toback living room, formal dining room and nice kitchen with warm wood cabinets. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a full bath. The family room in the basement has finished closets for extra storage. And yes, there is central air. Neat as a pin and ready for a new Princeton family who wants to walk to town and schools for a welcome change.

A CUSTOM 3 BEDROOM PRINCETON CAPE COD has just come on the market, featuring a living room with fireplace, upstairs bedroom with fireplace, a groundfloor master suite and warm, personal human scaled rooms that are charming. Situated on a mature lot, just a few minutes from community facilities, school and shopping. Built by an architect for himself, and now for you.

A VERSATILE 4 BEDROOM MULTI-LEVEL HOME IN PRINCETON close to schools, shopping, parks, university, yet on a quiet mature lot. Large living room with picture window, formal dining room, eat-in kitchen and family room with powder room nearby. The fourth bedroom is spacious and could have its own bath easily. Full basement, one car garage.

THIS HISTORICALLY DESIGNATED HOME in Princeton Borough is a literary landmark as well. Frequent visitors to the home included Albert Einstein and Thomas Mann and Austrian television made 2 films in the home. The home features 5 bedrooms, 31/2 baths, kitchen with pantry, living room with fireplace, formal dining room with pocket doors and hardwood floors throughout. The attic apartment includes bedroom, living room, both and kitchen. There is an approval for improvement of garage as a secondary residence. By appointment Offered for $485,000 only

THE BEST MODEL ON THE PREMIUM LOT IN LAWRENCEVILLE GREENE. If you're moving here from another area, consider buying the best home in this lovely development near the village of Lawrenceville. Professionally landscaped on a 3/4 acre wooded lot, this "Oxford" model home is just splendid in every way. Gracious entry foyer of two stories, living room with formal fireplace, dining room with bay window, family room with beamed ceiling and stone fireplace, fabulous kitchen with center island, all new appliances, and French doors to a lovely deck. There are four bedrooms in all including a master suite with a huge walk-in closet and a master bath with cathedral ceiling and jacuzzi. Creme de la creme, get the picture. A home worthy of a wine cellar, and it has one $369,000

A DELIGHTFUL FAMILY HOME IN THE CENTER OF PRINCETON has just come on the market. Inside, there's a nice welcome foyer, a spacious living room, a dining room with good wall space, an eat-in-kitchen, and not only a family room with fireplace, but also a rather large den with built-in bookcases. Upstairs are four bedrooms and two and one-half baths including a good sized master suite. Full basement, attached garage, and all in rather fine shape. And, oh yes, walk to everything and enjoy the good life in Princeton. $319,000

A PRINCETON BOROUGH CONDOMINIUM IN MINT CONDITION within walking distance of town and gown and in a superior location within the complex close to pool and tennis court. Special features include a private landscaped patio, finished basement workshop, fireplace in the living room, alarm and intercom system, upstairs laundry, etc. A turn-key type of situation. #### FROM THE TERRACE

On one of the loveliest streets in Princeton Township's Western Section, sited on a very private 2+ acre lot, is a renovated William McG. Thompson, AIA, colonial with tremendous emphasis on charm and warmth. The wall of windows in the living room, overlooking the brick terrace, permits the garden and grounds to be an integral part of the design. The master suite, consisting of library, bedroom and bath, has been up-dated and affords access to a secluded deck, Japanese garden and fenced pool. Stencilling has been added to the bay-windowed breakfast room and spacious dining room with marvelous fireplace. Front to back slate foyer, family room, rear entry lined with bookcases, three additional bedrooms all add to make this property truly an exciting opportunity. Please call Peggy Hughes for details and appointments. Reduced to $825,000
